(Provisions and content outlined in section 3.7/4.1 of the Faculty Handbook)

The faculty annual performance evaluations will be done on an academic year basis from July 1 to June 30. The transition from a calendar year to an academic year for annual reviews will require that this self-evaluation include effort from January 2023 – June 2024. After June 2024, the annual evaluation will cover a single academic year (i.e. July 1, 2024 to June 30, 2025).

During the spring term, each faculty member shall be evaluated for the academic year in accordance with the applicable section of the Faculty Handbook (see sections 3.7 and 4.10 and OP 4.1.3.1 and 4.1.3.2).

The rating system has three ratings: “exceeds expectations,” “meets expectations,” and “fails to meet expectations.” The normal rating is “meets expectations.” This rating describes a faculty member who performs the dimension of their job with skill, producing the results expected of a highly educated professional. The rating of “meets expectations” also describes a faculty member whose performance on a dimension is comparable to that of a broad range of faculty members within the unit. “Exceeds expectations” should be reserved for faculty who made outstanding contributions in the evaluation year.

Please review Faculty Handbook 3.7/4.10 for the statement on Evaluation of Faculty. The faculty member’s self-evaluation should go beyond a list of accomplishments and provide reflections on strengths and areas for growth or improvement.
